

Thomas Pandolfi - About the Artist (short version)

The young American pianist Thomas Pandolfi is an exciting virtuoso who, with each passing season, is becoming more and more sought after by audiences, and showered with superlatives by critics for his passionate artistry and amazing technique. His orchestral appearances often feature not only the beloved masterpiece concerti by Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninov and Liszt, but also the equally brilliant ones by Paderewski, Rubinstein and Moszkowski. Additionally in the "Pops" genre, Thomas is considered a leading interpreter of the works of George Gershwin.

The 2008-09 season, marked Thomas' debut recitals in Canada, Germany and China. Highlights during the 2009-10 season, included the world premiere of British composer, Simon Proctor's, dazzling and unique "James Bond" Piano Concerto in London, debuts with The Cluj Philharmonic, The Great Falls Symphony, The Memphis Symphony, The Allegro Chamber Orchestra, and The American Festival Pops Orchestra. Audiences this 2010-11 season will enjoy his artistry in New York, North Carolina, Illinois, Michigan, South Carolina, Massachusetts, California, Washington, Ohio, Connecticut, Arizona, Georgia, Florida, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland, and Washington, DC. He will also make debut appearances with The Craiova Philharmonic, The Pitesti Philharmonic, the Gettysburg Chamber Orchestra, and The LaPorte Symphony. Additionally, Thomas' 6th CD recording will be released. A graduate of The Juilliard School, Pandolfi earned both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees as a scholarship student.
